

How we are, and can be, inspired by difference

This year's conference offers an opportunity to inquire in depth into how 'difference' is experienced in organisations and beyond. In particular, how it can bring us closer together rather than increasing barriers between people, whether in work or beyond, as organisations do not exist in a vacuum.

Organisation Development Network Europe looks forward to connecting delegates from across Europe and the wider world.

Full Day Learning Programme

ODN Europe's Conference 2019 has dedicated full day programmes

Pre - Conference

Catering for both New to the field of Organisation Development and Experienced Practitioners

The Main Conference

Networking, best practice and ideas exchange for your organisation

Feedback from last year's conference

"Fresh perspective,
new contacts and
useful resources"

"The conference gave me lots of thoughts
about my future career
direction"

"Connecting
with colleagues
from across Europe"

"The new to field day was brilliant"

"I found it a great opportunity to meet new people, get away from work and refresh my thinking"